

DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCEInternational Trade Administration*Application for Duty-Free Entry of Scientific Instrument

Pursuant to Section 6(c) of the Educational, Scientific and Cultural Materials Importation Act of 1966 (Pub. L. 89-651; 80 Stat. 897; 15 CFR part 301), we invite comments on the question of whether an instrument of equivalent scientific value, for the purposes for which the instrument shown below is intended to be used, is being manufactured in the United States.

Comments must comply with 15 CFR 301.5(a) (3) and (4) of the regulations and be filed within 20 days with the Statutory Import Programs Staff, U.S. Department of Commerce, Washington, DC 20230. Application may be examined between 8:30 A.M. and 5:00 P.M. in Room 4211, U.S. Department of Commerce, 14th Street and Constitution Avenue, NW, Washington, DC.

Docket Number: 98-035. Applicant: Cornell University, 359 Bard Hall, Ithaca, NY 14853. Instrument: Scanning Tunneling Microscope, Model JAFM-4500XT. Manufacturer: JEOL Ltd., Japan. Intended Use: The instrument will be used for studies of crystalline and amorphous surfaces of insulating and semiconducting materials in an ultrahigh vacuum environment at room and elevated temperatures. Silicate glasses and their related crystalline forms are of particular interest. Investigations will be conducted to determine (a) the microscopic surface structure, (b) the surface chemical variations, (c) how the interactions between surface constituents influence changes in the structure and chemistry when the surface is processed and (d) how the tunneling electron current is influenced by subjecting the surface to electron and photon beams.

Application accepted by Commissioner of Customs: July 15, 1998.

Frank W. Creel,

Director, Statutory Import Programs Staff.

DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCEInternational Trade Administration*Membership Opportunity—U.S.-Turkey Business Development Council

AGENCY: International Trade Administration, Commerce.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: As part of its Big Emerging Market Strategy for Turkey, the Department of Commerce has established a Business Development Council (BDC) in cooperation with the Turkish Government. The BDC has established eleven working groups: energy/environment, telecommunications, textiles, health, education, defense, finance, agriculture, tourism, transportation, and media. The Department of Commerce is currently seeking nominations of outstanding individuals to fill existing vacancies on the U.S. section of the BDC in the tourism and textiles sectors. The Department of Commerce is also accepting applications for review for additional U.S. members on the other BDC working groups. The purpose of the BDC is to provide a forum through which U.S. and Turkish private sector representatives can engage in constructive exchanges of information on commercial matters, and in which governments can exchange information, solve problems, and work more effectively on issues of mutual concern relating to the following:

- Identifying commercial opportunities, and impediments and issues of concern to the U.S. and Turkish business communities;
- Addressing obstacles to trade and investment;
- Improving the dissemination of information on U.S.-Turkey market opportunities;
- Implementing trade/business development and promotion programs, including trade missions, exhibits, seminars, and other events; and
- Identifying further steps to facilitate and encourage the development of commercial expansion and cooperation between the two countries.

The inaugural meeting of the BDC was held in Ankara, Turkey in January 1998 with government and private sector members from both countries in attendance. A follow-up session was held in May 1998 in Istanbul, Turkey with an upcoming meeting expected to take place in Washington, DC in the fall of 1998.

Obligations: Private sector members are appointed for a two year term and serve at the discretion of the Secretary of Commerce and as representatives of the U.S. business community. They are expected to participate fully in defining the agenda for the BDC and in implementing its work program. They are fully responsible for travel, living and personal expenses associated with their participation, and may be responsible for a pro rata share of administrative and communications costs of the Council.

Criteria: The Council is composed of two sections, the U.S. section and the Turkish section. The U.S. section is chaired by the Under Secretary for International Trade of the Department of Commerce and includes 23 members from the U.S. private sector.

In order to be eligible for membership in the U.S. section, potential candidates must be:

- U.S. citizens or permanent U.S. residents;
- CEOs or other senior management level employees of a U.S. company or organization involved in trade with and/or investment in Turkey; and
- Not a registered foreign agent under the Foreign Agent Registration Act of 1938, as amended (FARA).

In reviewing eligible candidates, the Department of Commerce will consider such selection factors as:

- Depth of experience in the Turkish market;
- Export/investment experience;
- Industry or service sector represented;
- Company size or, if an organization, size and number of member companies;
- Contribution to diversity based on company size, location, demographics, and traditional under representation in business; and
- Stated commitment to actively participate in BDC activities and meetings.

To be considered for membership, please provide the following: name and title of individual proposed for consideration; name and address of organization or company sponsoring each individual; company or organization's product or service line; size of the company or, if an organization, the size and number of member companies; export/foreign investment experience; a brief statement (not more than 2 pages) of why each candidate should be considered for membership on the Council; the particular segment of business community each candidate would represent; and a personal resume.

DATES: In order to receive full consideration, requests must be received no later than Monday, August 31, 1998.

ADDRESSES: Please send your requests for consideration to Mr. David De Falco, International Trade Specialist, Office of European Union and Regional Affairs, by fax on 202/482-2897 or by mail at Room 3036, U.S. Department of Commerce, Washington, DC 20230.
